does the apostle paul have any use for the person of jesus presented in the gospels critical scholarship thinks not but this book argues that paul not only mentions more than seventy specific details of the historical jesus but he also commends the character of jesus and echoes his teachings repeatedly in his letters and sermons in full agreement with the gospel accounts stout examines paul s intriguing description of the man christ jesus 1 tim 2 5 and suggests that this title fulfills the ot expectation of god appearing in human history as a man in his incarnated humanity the man christ jesus accomplished salvation in the historical events of his life and death and in his resurrected humanity he appeared to paul on the damascus road rooting paul s christology deeply in human experience furthermore stout shows how paul rests his concept of salvation on a neglected aspect of his doctrine that the entire church is associated with the historical events of the life death and resurrection of jesus an association which also unites his church with one another in fellowship and service this book then demonstrates that paul s gospel rests upon jesus as a man of history who brings salvation into human history in his life death and exaltation as the man christ jesus

a significant aspect of this work is the emphasis on source materials including some translated from mongolian and other languages for the first time the source materials and other articles are all fully contextualized and situated by introductory material by the volume s editors this is the first work in english to bring together significant articles in mongolian studies in one place which will be widely welcomed by scholars and researchers in this field this essential reference in two volumes includes works by noted scholars including charles bawden igor de rachewiltz david morgan owen lattimore and caroline humphrey it also includes excerpts from translations of source documents such as the works of rashid al din the secret history of the mongols and the yuan shih in addition more recent historical periods are covered with material such as batmonh s speech that heralded mongolia s versions of glasnost and perestroika as well as baabar s buu mart a key work associated with the democratic revolution of 1990
